Sharebot NG – the most common Italian 3D printer with FFF technology, available in a mono or double extruder mode; Sharebot Kiwi-3D – the perfect tool for everyone who wants to become member of the digital fabrication community, available both in assembly kit or already assembled; Sharebot XXL – the professional, big size 3D printer; Sharebot Voyager – a professional working tool with DLP technology capable of high resolution and dedicated to the dental and jewellery field.

In every Sharebot on Tour 2015 event it will be possible to see the Sharebot SnowWhite candidate release, the first low-cost DLS (Direct Laser Sintering) 3D printer with powders sintering in hot chamber.

The big news badged Sharebot that it's going to be presented during the tour is the Andromeda project. The company will release more details about it after September 22nd.

As usual, Sharebot activated a tour-dedicated website where each one can interact with the company during the various events. The website address is: sharebotontour2015.sharebot.it.

The website can be used to explore all the products on show (3D printers and the exclusive fully Italian Sharebot filaments) and to post pictures or comments using the official campaign hashtag #sharebotontour2015, which can be viewed on Instagram, Facebook and Twitter.
